Canadian Scholarships: Awards, Prizes and Bursaries in Canada – database - potential sources of funding

Directory of Canadian scholarships, prizes, awards and bursaries available in universities and colleges in Canada.

A scholarship is an award of financial aid for a student to further education. Scholarships in Canada are awarded on various criteria, usually reflecting the values and purposes of the donor of the award. Scholarship values can range from a few hundred dollars, to full payment of all tuition and student fees. However, the most commonly awarded scholarships have values of $1000-$5000 per year.

Dentistry Awards, Bursaries, Prizes and Scholarships in Alberta– database - potential sources of funding

Marie Arnold Cancer Research Graduate Scholarship

Funded by Phyllis A Arnold in memory of her mother Marie Arnold

Value: $5,000

Eligibility: Awarded annually to a full-time student in a graduate degree program on the basis of academic excellence and research potential who is conducting cancer research.

Application: There is no application form; the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research will request one nomination from each eligible department. The Graduate Scholarship Committee will make the final selection.

Nomination Deadline: 01-Oct

BMO Financial Group Graduate Scholarship

CAGS/PROQUEST - UMI Distinguished Dissertation Award

The CAGS/PROQUEST - UMI Distinguished Dissertation Awards recognize Canadian doctoral dissertations that make unusually significant and original contributions to their academic field. They were established in 1994 and are presented annually.

There are two awards:

- One for engineering, medical sciences and the natural sciences; and
- One for the fine arts, humanities and social sciences.

The Awards are granted by the Canadian Association for Graduate Studies (CAGS) and are sponsored by PROQUEST-UMI (University Microfilms International).

Value: $1,500 prize, a Citation Certificate, and travel expenses of up to $1,500 to attend the annual CAGS conference.

WAGS/PROQUEST Distinguished Master's Thesis/Innovation in Technology Awards

Value: $1,000 for the Distinguished Master's Thesis Awards; $1,500 for the Innovation in Technology Awards. The awards also consist of a certificate of award and travel expenses for the student and the student's advisor to receive the award at the annual meeting of the Association.

The WAGS/PROQUEST Distinguished Master's Thesis Award for the Biological Sciences, Mathematical and Physical Sciences, Life Sciences and Engineering and the WAGS/PROQUEST Distinguished Master's Thesis Award for Humanities, Social Sciences, Education, and Business recognize distinguished scholarly achievement at the master's level.

Nominations will be accepted in any of the above-listed disciplines in which the institution offers a master's degree.

The WAGS/PROQUEST Innovation in Technology Award recognizes the innovative application of technology to scholarship. The award may be given either to a master's thesis or to a doctoral dissertation for the development of an innovative technology and its utilization for the creative solution of a major problem.

The Awards are granted by the Western Association of Graduate Schools (WAGS) and are sponsored by ProQuest.

The scholarly “product” eligible for these competitions is a formal written thesis. If a nominating department offers both a thesis option and a project option, only the thesis is acceptable for consideration for this award. The nominee must have earned the master’s degree within the period July 1, 2016, through June 30, 2017.

Deadline TO BE CONFIRMED: Previous deadline August 11, 2017.

Dissertation Fellowship <COULD NOT FIND in 2017>

See General Awards Competition for complete details.

The Dissertation Fellowship is funded by the University of Alberta, and is intended to help support the final year (or less) of a doctoral program. It was designed for students who have a firm expectation of completing a doctoral program within its 12 month tenure.

Value: $22,000 plus tuition and fees up to the maximum cost for registration of the equivalent of 9 normal credit weights in courses or thesis research per term (or Thesis 919) during the Fall/Winter Terms (September to April) or an annual program fee as determined by the date of admission into the doctoral program, as well as the International Graduate Student Differential Fee, if applicable.

Eligibility: Recipients must commence their tenure between 1 May and 1 October, and must pass their candidacy examinations before taking up the award. No other duties, teaching or otherwise, may be undertaken, and recipients must be working full time on their program. Recipients are not eligible for any further assistance from scholarship or assistantship funds after the conclusion of the 12 month tenure. No restrictions on citizenship. All fields are eligible for funding. Approximately 20 awards are granted each year.

Basic Eligibility:

- Please refer to the specific requirements for the award(s) you are applying for, located above.
- To be considered, you must be admitted to a graduate degree program or have been recommended for admission to a graduate program by the department.
- Applicants are assessed according to their academic record, letters of appraisal, statement of program, applicant's research, potential contributions to research, and other technical experience.

The Faculty Club/Dr William A (Bill) Preshing Graduate Scholarship
